

Lenawee

now

Lenawee County has what it takes to meet your business needs yet offers a warm and beautiful community in which to live your life. We have a skilled and qualified workforce, strong agricultural base, three higher education institutes, and commercial and industrial sites ready throughout the county including in industrial parks. With our location in southeast Michigan, near the Ohio-Michigan border, Ann Arbor and Toledo, Ohio, are easily accessible. You can enjoy the benefits of small-town living while having amenities of bigger cities within a short drive.

Our Population

99,892

2010 U.S. Census

Our Workforce

40,100

2013 State of Michigan

Our Median Income

$46,399

2011 U.S. Census

Lenawee's Largest Private Employers

ProMedica Health System - North Region	1,062
Van-Rob Tecumseh	800
Wacker Chemical-Adrian	515
Inteva Products, LLC	447
L&W Engineering Company	335
Hi-Lex Controls	300
Adrian College	250
Adrian Steel	225
Siena Heights University	215
Inergy Automotive	200

517-265-5141 • www.lenaweenow.org

Jim Van Doren: jevd@lenaweenow.org • Tim Robinson: tim@lenaweenow.org
Lenawee Now is a Registered Trademark of the Lenawee Economic Development Corporation

Life In Lenawee

Whether it's the small town country living, or the quick drive to museums, entertainment or shopping, we think you'll love everything about Lenawee county. Take in a hockey or football game at one of our local universities, then head out to a challenging golf course. With a plethora of beautiful lakes you can enjoy the sunset on the water, then drive into town for a performance by the Adrian Symphony Orchestra or a show at the Croswell Opera House. You can explore nature and wildlife on 755 acres at Hidden Lakes Gardens, or feel the roar of the engines at the Michigan International Speedway. You'll find many ways to have fun with your family in Lenawee County!

Croswell Opera House

The Croswell Opera House first opened in 1866 and provided entertainment including concerts, lectures, vaudeville acts, minstrel shows, and various educational activities. Legendary figures have graced the stage, such as Susan B. Anthony, Frederick Douglas and Edwin Booth.

Photo credit: Croswell Opera House

Michigan International Speedway

Michigan International Speedway in Brooklyn, Michigan, boasts a proud, 43-year history of hosting America's best racing action. Michigan International Speedway provides drivers with three and four grooves to run around the two-mile speedway. A wide variety of non-racing events are also hosted on site.

Photo credit: Michigan International Speedway

Adrian Symphony Orchestra

The Adrian Symphony Orchestra was founded more than 30 years ago with the mission to create musical performances of the highest quality and to present activities that educate, enhance, and improve the quality of life for the citizens of Lenawee County and Southeast Michigan.

Photo credit: Adrian Symphony Orchestra

Center For a Sustainable Future

The LISD Center for a Sustainable Future is a 75-acre campus comprised of crop fields, hardwood forest and wetlands. The site is home to a greenhouse and a new, 8,600 square foot, state-of-the-art, net-zero energy classroom building, which was completed in June, 2013.

Photo credit: Lenawee Intermediate School District

Hidden Lake Gardens

Hidden Lake Gardens is a paradise in a park, a place which is an escape from the everyday world and yet a connection to the world of nature for every visitor. From the comfort of your car or on meandering footpaths, the visitor has at their disposal a visual treat, ranging from the modest to the magnificent.

Photo credit: WePhoto Photography

Tecumseh Center for the Arts

The Tecumseh Center for the Arts provides a wide variety of events that light up the stage. From Broadway stars, to sensational chart topping bands and world class national touring acts to local theater companies and youth events, you'll find it all on stage at the Tecumseh Center for the Arts.

Photo credit: Tecumseh Center for the Arts

